COACHING LEAD

YORKSHIRE NETBALL REGIONAL MANAGEMENT BOARD

INTRODUCTION

Yorkshire Netball Regional Management Board is looking for an experienced and passionate individual to join our board as our new Coaching Lead. The role will lead the strategic development and promotion of coaching across the Yorkshire Netball region, working collaboratively with Clubs, County Associations, England Netball, and Leeds Rhinos Netball to strengthen the coaching pathway and support coaches at all levels.

The Yorkshire Netball Regional Management Board is collectively responsible for the governance and strategic development of netball across the region. Working in close partnership with key stakeholders, the board also plays a vital role in fostering collaboration across working groups and maintaining strong community engagement to ensure netball in Yorkshire is accessible and welcoming to all.

This role will report to the Regional Management Board Chair.

WHAT THE ROLE INVOLVES

The Coaching Lead is responsible for:

- Supporting the growth and sustainability of coaching across the region by identifying coaching needs, challenges, and opportunities.
- Promoting inclusive and high-quality coaching practices across all levels of the game.
- Building strong relationships with netball clubs across the region to understand their coaching needs, encourage them to engage with regional and national coaching initiatives, and support them to develop and retain coaches through guidance, resources, and signposting to England Netball programmes.

- Working closely with County Coaching Leads, England Netball's Head of Coach Education and Development, Leeds Rhinos Netball Coaches, and other members of the Regional Management Board and Working Groups.
- Acting as a regional advocate for coaching, representing local issues and feedback to England Netball.
- Chairing and overseeing the Yorkshire Netball Coaching Working Group.
- Preparing for and actively participating in Regional Management Board meetings and the Annual General Meeting (AGM).
- Ensuring alignment with the Regional Management Board Code of Behaviour and upholding high standards of conduct.

SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE NEEDED

- A sound understanding of Netball, including its structures, coaching pathways, and development opportunities.
 - Ability to uphold the region's Code of Conduct and consistently demonstrate professional behaviour.
 - Strong interpersonal and communication skills, with the ability to engage and collaborate effectively with a wide range of stakeholders.
 - People management skills, including the ability to motivate, support and influence others.
 - Good IT skills, including proficiency in Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Teams, and SharePoint.
 - Ability to be flexible and inclusive, working with volunteers from diverse backgrounds to build and maintain effective networks.
 - Willingness to listen to and respect the viewpoints of others, fostering a collaborative and supportive environment.
 - Member of (or willingness to a member of) Yorkshire Netball to support alignment with national standards and access relevant resources.

TIME COMMITMENT

The Coaching Lead will be appointed for a term of four (4) years, after which the role holder will be eligible for re-election for one further term of 4 years. The maximum tenure for this position is 8 years.

The role will require volunteering approximately 5 hours per month, in addition to the yearly cycle of board meetings. The Board meets 4 times per year for Regional Management Board meetings, with relevant working group meetings in between.

Meetings are a mix of in person and online using Microsoft Teams. You will need access to email, WhatsApp, and phone. Access to Microsoft 365 is provided by Yorkshire Netball. There is an Annual General Meeting (AGM) annually at which Board members are elected.

YOUR CONTRIBUTION AND OUR COMMITMENT

- The ability to help shape the direction of our sport in Yorkshire, ensuring our members' views are heard and more people of all backgrounds can enjoy Netball across Yorkshire.
 - We will value and recognise your contribution as a volunteer, through opportunities to learn, attend events and access support from England Netball
 - Reasonable out of pocket expenses will be reimbursed
 - To be a volunteer on the Regional Management Board, you will need to be, or be willing to become a member of England Netball
 - You'll be joining a friendly, welcoming and professional team of volunteers who are committed to supporting one another
 - You'll be able to volunteer flexibility around work and life commitments
 - You'll receive a full induction and be paired with another volunteer mentor
 - You will receive guidance, support and resources to help fulfil your role from the Regional Management Board and England Netball
